Your donation benefits 1 in 4 kids who struggles with food insecurity (meaning they don't know where their next meal will come from).

With your help, ECHO Food Bank will be able to provide food-filled backpacks to 26 different elementary schools across San Juan County. School personnel distributes the backpacks to children at risk of going hungry over weekends or school breaks.

Thank you for choosing to make a difference with us and help our neighbors in need.

Together we can empower our community to thrive!
