

Julie Baird – ECHO, Inc. Board Member

Julie Platt Baird has served on the Echo board for 8 years as the Mayor-appointed representative for the City of Farmington. As the Assistant City Manager, she works closely with a number of non-profits focused on social services in the community. She has also worked with a number of arts organizations and started her municipal career as the Director of the Farmington Museum. Julie has participated as an instructor in the Board Basics course at San Juan College concentrating on mission statements and bylaws. She has a Master's Degree from George Washington University.